Kim kardashian hollywood save game hack

If you're addicted to Kim Kardashian's iPhone game (and who isn't, at this point, especially now that it's available on your computer?), you're probably constantly missing out on the stars. They are the hardest things to come in a game without forking through real money. Fortunately, one way to put together those free K stars is by releasing special achievements. These are bonus categories that you can meet and earn points, energy, and yes, those silvery K stars. You may even unlock a few of them already. But instead of accidentally stumbling upon a solution to complete the achievements, I composed a list of simple ways to quickly meet these requirements and get some rewards. So, what are the special achievements? Click the check box bubble in the lower-right corner of the screen, and then tap the tab next to Goals. There are 15 total achievements to unlock. They run the gamut from food-related purchases-related and they're pretty easy to unlock once you understand what they're looking for. Basically, there are certain tasks that you need to do to fill in the Achievements Panel 100 percent. Once you do, you will get a reward that is usually K star, some money, points and energy. Plus, you get to complete each success five times. So each of the 15 have the potential to unlock at least five total K stars for you. Pretty sweet, I know. To help you fill out the achievements bar, here are some tips on the kinds of tasks you need to complete. BARFLY The first step is to admit that you have a problem. Another is to do booze-related things. That's what this success hint reads. None of them reveal exactly what you need to do to unlock them, but they all give a clue. To unlock the money, energy and star that go along with this prize, you need to start drinking in the game. When you're on a date use your energy to buy luxury wine or take a shot when you're at an event. Basically anything that has something to do with alcohol consumption will help your point bar increase to 100 percent and unlock your rewards. BIG SPENDER When you're on a date or at an event, select the features that you're spending money on. Tip the bartender $50, drop $200 on a luxury meal, etc. If you act like you were out of money you will unlock that price. Heads up though, there is no star reward for this one, just $25 in cash, five people points, and three lightning bolts. It is best to fill in other achievements before circling back into this. DAY JOB Win star K and some money and energy by completing more changes in Kardash boutiques. It's a double bonus because you get paid big money for your work in the store and you can also quickly unlock this success. FOODIE Like with barfly success, you can unlock this prize by choosing dining options while on dates or at events. Spend your energy on completing tasks like order dessert or grab a bite to get this reward. PROFESSIONAL Toto one is a little more on the vague side, but the golden star icon will tell you you need to know. You rack rack only by buying clothes and furniture, which also have a gold star in the corner. Buy enough and get rewarded with one star K and a lot of money and energy. ROMANTICS still think dating in this game is totally not worth it, but dating people has one upside down in that you can unlock this success and earn yourself one star K. You can also build your percentage bar by buying things that have a golden heart in the corner (clothes or furniture). LOVE Deda for this one is, All the things you do when you're in love, but hate to see others do when you're not. For me, this means when you're on a date choose options like a kiss and send a BF/GF gift once in a while. This way you can get energy and K star this success promises. SOCIALITE Unleash your inner Paris Hilton and chat with friends with people when you're at events. If the possibilities sound social in nature, you will hit this success in no time. LOOK Makeup is a real life photo shop. Kim game informs you. My guess is that this success is best unlocked by playing around with avatar makeup/nail polish and also clicking on things like check makeup while on a photo shoot. (It's usually a bubble near the mirror when you're on set.) VANITY Similarly to The Look's success, the best is to just shop around a lot, check your makeup, and change your style every once in a while. When you're at a photo shoot click on tasks like change. Show Kim you're waving like that. THESPIAN Do a lot of film/TV roles (anything offered at Miramount Studios) and then use your energy for tasks like rehearsing lines and delivering lines. You unlock star K before you know it. CONNECTED Befriend 10 Kim Kardashian players and win 3 K stars. Far from being one of the better achievements to unlock, and relatively easy to do so. My guide on how to connect with friends in the game is here, and if you need more kontak feel free to add me. My username is msorren. GLAM Shop 'til drop, but not literally, added a tip to this success. This is pretty straight-forward: Buy clothes to win this success. It doesn't come with star K, but buying new clothes can also increase the number of your fans, so maybe it's all worth it in the end. CATWALK When Simon offers you the opportunity to do a fashion show, say yes and then rock them on the runway to unlock this prize. I'm sorry to say it's a money and energy-only prize though, no stars of K. SPOTLIGHT When on a photo shoot or movie set to complete tasks that have as many as 20 years with the lights. Examples are lighting control and perfect lighting. Soon you'll be on your way to one more Star K and even more money and energy. Now that you know what you need to do to unlock these achievements, try playing by following these instructions. You will find that your output to the star is suddenly way more K star inhabited. good luck! Pictures: Kim Kardashian: Hollywood (16) If reports are to be believed, Kanye West's recent behaviour puts enormous pressure on his marriage to Kim West. Amid the rumored fallout, caused by a string of controversial comments West made in public and on Twitter, the pair reportedly flew to the Caribbean to get away from the noise and work on their relationship. Neither of them said much on social media when it comes to holidays, but here's what we've gathered so far. Kim Kardashian West and Kanye West at a Party in February 2020 | Rich Fury/VF20/Getty Images for Vanity Fair Kanye West did some controversial things that allegedly upset Kim Kardashian West The drama kicked off on July 19 at a campaign rally when West revealed personal details of their relationship and that he was considering miscarriage by their eldest daughter North, 7, when the reality star found out she was pregnant in 2012. As criticism ed, West attacked his wife and mother-in-law on Twitter, saying he was trying to fly to his Wyoming ranch and lock [him] up, presumably under the belief that he was having a bipolar episode. Kardashian West spoke about her disorder in a statement shared on her Instagram, but defended her husband. Those close to Kanye know his heart and understand his words sometimes don't align with his intentions, she wrote before asking the world about compassion and empathy for West, whom she married in 2014 after a two-year romance. Following her remark, West tweeted an apology to the KKW Beauty founder. I would like to apologise to my wife Kim for going public with something that was a private matter, he wrote on July 25. I didn't cover her like she was covering for me. Kim, I mean, I know I hurt you. Please forgive me. Thank you for always being there for me. Later, Kardashian West flew to Wyoming to see rapper Yeezus and was seen crying in what appeared to be a tense conversation between them. RELATED: The reason Kim Kardashian West wept while talking to Kanye on the Wyoming Trip Revealed Kim Kardashian and Kanye West were getting on the run to focus on their marriage After meeting, multiple outlets reported during Week 2 that Wests flew to the Caribbean specifically to try to save their marriage. They decided to travel together so they could be away in private, a source told People, as others noted that they also brought along their four children: North, Saint, 4, Chicago, 2, and Psalm, 1. TMZ reported the family remains in a fortress that allows them complete privacy and the ability to focus on their problems. For further help, Kardashian West reportedly reached out to the pastor who married them, Rich Wilkerson Jr., to guide them during the trip, according to The Sun. He has been a constant in Kim and Kanye's life and he is a friend of the family, a Wilkerson source said. Kim hopes the intervention will help Kanye. Neither of them dealt with the news, but from that looks, it seems that the journey could be good. West shared a video with his family on August 7, showing him dancing with North as the reality star laughed and in the background. So far, it's one of the latest updates on their escape. Escape.
